

EXCELLENT IN READING

Is your student having difficulties with reading? Falling behind in school? Received a diagnosis of dyslexia?

Take Flight is a research-based dyslexia intervention

- Multisensory approach
- Orton-Gillingham based curriculum
- Direct and systematic instruction with emphasis on phonemic awareness, phonics, vocabulary, fluency, and reading comprehension
- ALTA certified

Reserve your student's spot now at CorExcellent Intake

(331) 472-7132

CorExcellent

Therapy and Core Strategies for Excellent Results in Life
2603 S. Washington St, Suite 170, Naperville, IL www.corexcellent.com

PRIVATE AND SEMIPRIVATE LESSONS AVAILABLE

SOCIAL DISTANCE AND SAFETY MEASURES

FLEXIBLE AFTER SCHOOL SCHEDULE

COMBINATION OF IN-PERSON AND REMOTE SESSIONS

AMY COX, ACADEMIC LANGUAGE THERAPIST

Amy Cox is a Reading Specialist and Certified Academic Language Therapist (CALT), with over fifteen years of teaching experience and ten years specializing in literacy remediation.

Amy's certification includes completing a Comprehensive Therapist Level Multisensory Structured Language training course that is Orton-Gillingham based and accredited by the International Multisensory Structured Language Education Council (IMSLEC).

Amy is passionate about increasing reading skills among struggling readers and advocating for students with learning differences.